

Special Grant for USI members for IOIS - 2011

The Uveitis Society of India (USI) will be hosting the first assembly of over 20 leading national and international societies on ocular inflammation in Goa (India) on November 13-16, 2011. This meeting will be held in Taj Exotica in south Goa. This meeting will present an exclusive forum for international experts and opinion leaders in Ocular Inflammation and Immunology to share their experience and expertise in a common venue for the very first time.

As this conference is going to take place in India, it is important that Indian ophthalmologists make use of this unique, once in a life time opportunity to upgrade their practice of care for patients suffering from inflammatory diseases. The registration fee of 500 US $ is on par with that in major international conferences. This may be slightly on the higher side for an average ophthalmologist from India. In order to help increase participation of Indian ophthalmologists, Uveitis society of India (USI) is in pursuit of financial support to reduce the burden on Indian ophthalmologists. Thanks to the friends of the USI will be able to encourage ophthalmologists from India who desire to participate in this unique congress of societies on ocular inflammation by providing substantial reimbursement of their registration expenses towards the congress.

The Uveitis society of India will be giving the following 2 grants:

1. Uveitis Society of India Educational aid towards IOIS 2011( Indian Rupees equivalent to 250 US$ )
2. Uveitis Society of India Scholarships for young ophthalmologists

Eligibility for the Uveitis Society of India Educational towards IOIS 2011
